

The State of IN.gov

Where We Are & Where We're Going

Chris W. Cotterill
Director of IN.gov
12/11/06

IN.gov The Diagnosis (Pros)

- 365x24x7 Access to State Government
- 300,000+ Pages & Hundreds of Interactive Services
- 50.87% of Hits Occur while Government Offices Are Closed
- 99 % of All Information & Services Free to Users
- Self-funded (No General Appropriation)
- Virtually All State Websites at IN.gov
- Trusted/Secure
- Ranked by Some as One of the Best State Websites
  - Brown University: 9th in 2006; 20th in 2005
  - Best of the Web: Finalist in 2006; 3rd Place in 2005
  - National Policy Research Council: Grade of A (Tied for 2nd) in 2006

- Perspective of Many in State Government

- Too hard to quickly update content
- Who is accessIndiana? What do “they” do and how fast can I expect them to do it?
- Standards unclear, unenforceable
- Neglected in favor of revenue generating agencies
- Need for non-fee services (shift customer to cheaper delivery channel)
- All development is free right?
- OK, but show me the results (PROBES 5/2006)

■ My Perspective

- Need to communicate mission, vision, priorities, metrics to customers
- Can't keep up with content requests; throwing money at wrong solution to problem
- Most development resources being spent on regulatory compliance and maintenance
- Many “ASAP” requests from agencies
- Must maintain enough fee-based services to support IN.gov
- We're not changing the world (yet)

- Perspective of IN.gov Users (External)
  - Agency-focused, not customer-focused
  - Confusing due to lack of consistency
  - Many agency services; few complete (“one stop”) solutions
  - Same types of information presented differently
    - news releases and events not on central service
    - can’t share information across site
  - Designs are stale

IN.gov The Prescription

■ Make Sense

- Clear mission, vision, & priorities
- Governance restructuring
- Establish the brand: IN.gov
- Open lines of communication

■ Manage Money Right

- Financial Management
- Priorities drive how money will be spent

■ Deliver What Is Needed on Time

- Easy issue submission via webmasters.IN.gov
- Managing to metrics
- Put easy-to-use tools in hands of communicators

- The organizing objective of our administration will be higher personal income for Hoosiers, meaning more money, after taxes, in each worker's pocket.
- Almost every part of state government can do something, or do it faster, or maybe stop doing something, to improve the chances of economic growth in our state.
- Be prepared to help identify what your area can do, to keep track of it, and to be held accountable for progress or the lack of it.

Governor Daniels, 1/10/05

■ Mission

- To be the single online source of up-to-the minute state government information and trusted, easy-to-use, “one stop” state services that reduce the cost of doing business with and within state government.

■ Vision

- To shift, by the end of 2008, to be a measurably customer-centric portal of state information and services.

■ IN.gov Program Management

- Director (Cotterill) and Program Manager (Robert Paglia) are state employees
- Vendors & state fiscal and technical staff
- Primary vendor is Indiana Interactive; all vendor activity managed by Program Manager

■ IN.gov Program Management Direction

- Shift, within 2007, from a reactive service delivery model, to a proactive, consultative model where the best plans for cost reduction, increasing transparency, enhancing usability and reliability, and completeness of the solution (from the customer's perspective) receive top priority and funding and produce meaningful, measurable results.

■ IN.gov Program Management Functions

- Provide secure, reliable utility services (web hosting, payment processing, content management solution) across IN.gov for the benefit of all state government entities
- Uphold the value of the trusted IN.gov brand with clear, balanced, and enforced web standards
- Provide an easy-to-understand process for state government entities to update web content and secure web development assistance
- Respond to requests, and deliver approved requests, on time with high customer satisfaction
- Use available IN.gov funds to develop “one stop” customer-focused government services

- IN.gov Executive Advisory Council
  - Review and approve major initiatives
  - Meetings: 1 month after every quarter; first meeting 03/07
  - Business leaders, not IT people
- IN.gov Executive Advisory Council Members
  - Governor or designee
  - Appointee of the General Assembly
  - Appointee of the Judiciary
  - Appointee of the Separately Elected Officials
  - Secretary of Commerce or designee
  - Director of OMB or designee
  - Chief Information Officer or designee

- IN.gov Communicators Advisory Council
  - Open group of willing & active participants of PIOs, communications staff, and webmasters
  - Discuss, for example
    - IN.gov Program performance
    - IN.gov standards
    - Enhancements needed for IN.gov
  - Meetings: every two months or every quarter: first meeting 01/07

IN.gov Governance – Model

IN.gov Make Sense – The Brand

“States should have consistent URLs for agencies. These would make it easy for visitors to navigate between state agencies, since they always know they’re visiting an official state website.”

– Brown University 2006 Report

- It’s IN.gov; no more “accessIndiana”
- Data: More Visits to IN.gov = Less Cost to State; Increased Revenue
- Non-IN.gov Domain Names = Missed Opportunities
  - E.g.: IndianaConsumer.com, IndianaUnclaimed.com, IndianaVoters.com, HoosierStart.com, IndianaCampaignFinance.com
  - New: e.g., INShape.IN.gov, theBarn.IN.gov, jobs.IN.gov, help.IN.gov, auditor.IN.gov
  - Coming Soon: library.IN.gov, IndianaMemory.IN.gov, volunteers.IN.gov
- Web Address Request Process (via webmasters.IN.gov)
  - Executive Department: IN.gov staff, then Governor’s Office, review
  - Legislative & Judicial Departments: Request to IN.gov for discussion and processing
- Put IN.gov on Everything You Print

■ Internal Communications

Introducing the IN.gov Update

Welcome to the first installment of the IN.gov Update. After this issue, the Update will be sent every other month and will contain information about IN.gov initiatives. Future issues will focus more on current projects and agency success stories, but this issue is focused on a key meeting, webmasters.IN.gov, and reinforcing the IN.gov brand. We hope you find it useful, and we welcome your feedback.

A regular feature of the Update will be our quarterly metrics report. The results from the last quarter are included below.

■ Request for Major Content or New Online Service

- Go to webmasters.IN.gov to download a “New Project Questionnaire,” send it to newproject@www.IN.gov, which will open up a ticket to get the process started
- Project reviewed with decision made on whether to scope out into a statement of work (to be signed by all with deadlines and cost with who pays); another review for final go-ahead

■ If Can't Be Completed by IN.gov Program

- Leverage IN.gov resources via “Variable Services”
- Exact same process, except agency/grant pays
- No contract (because you use ours), just an SOW
- Ensures that application will be developed to standards
- ID billed based on SOW

IN.gov $$$ Reporting Improvements

■ Billing Improvements

- Distribute funds based on the amount collected on behalf of the agency, as opposed to distributing funds based on the amount invoiced
- Payments applied to a specific invoice, not just an account
- Improved reporting functionality allowing more detailed, real-time analysis of financials
- Implementation end of 1Q 2007 (Now testing in S.C.)

■ Paperless Subscription Signup (End of 1Q 2007)

■ Checkout Web Service – Plug & Play Payment Processing (End of January)

President of BizCom Will Speak At InterDoc Conference

[print]

BizCom, a leading provider of enterprise content management solutions, announced today that Heinz Meyer, president of BizCom, will speak on the Smart Enterprise Suite vs. ECM at the InterDoc Symposium 2005. Changes to the content.

The conference will be held at the Centre Mont-Royal, Montreal, Canada. The Smart Enterprise Suite vs. ECM: The Evolution of Content Management through Aggregation of Functionality Speaker: Heinz Meyer, President of BizCom: The Smart Enterprise Suite (SES) concept is a result of a fundamental shift from "best of breed" solutions to fully integrated suites with one common platform. Although a relatively new concept, the idea is beginning to gain traction in the marketplace. Where does this leave the established idea of Enterprise Content Management? What are the key differences, and is SES the evolution of the ECM concept? What does this mean to companies in managing their unstructured content? RedDot can be the easy to use enterprise web content management system.

Great for Agency, Bad for Customer

The collage displays several Indiana government websites, highlighting a lack of unified design and user experience:

- Indiana Workforce Development: Features a blue header with the text "INNOVATING Indiana" and a navigation bar with links like "About DWD", "What's New", "Forms & Downloads", "Contact Us", "Site Map", and "Home".
- Indiana Bureau of Motor Vehicles (BMV): Shows a yellow header with the BMV logo and the name of the Commissioner, Ronald L. Stiver.
- Indiana Horse Racing Commission: Features a purple header with the text "Indiana Horse Racing Commission" and a navigation bar with links like "Press Releases", "Meetings", "2005", and "Annual Reports".
- Indiana Department of Environmental Management (IDEM): Shows a green header with the text "Indiana DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL MANAGEMENT" and a navigation bar with links like "Home", "About", "Calendar", "Contact", "Grants & Loans", and "Records".
- Indiana Department of Agriculture: Features a yellow header with the text "INDIANA AGRICULTURE" and a navigation bar with links like "About Us", "Links", "Newsroom", "Publications", "Staff", "Strategic Plan", "Division of Soil Conservation", "Indiana Grain Buyers & Warehouse Licensing Agency", and "Farmers' Market".
- Indiana Department of Transportation (INDOT): Shows a blue header with the text "INDIANA DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION" and a navigation bar with links like "Motorist Information", "About INDOT", "Publications", "Modes of Transportation", "Doing Business with INDOT", "Projects/Studies", "Public/Media Info", "Programs/Events", and "Home".
- Indiana Department of Homeland Security (IDHS): Features a blue header with the text "Indiana Department of Homeland Security" and a navigation bar with links like "Home", "Welcome", "About the OUCC", "News", "Consumer Publications", "Outreach", "Contact Us", "Utility Complaints", "En Español", "Employment", "Calendar", "Links", and "Site Map".
- Indiana Department of the Inspector General: Shows a blue header with the text "OFFICE OF THE INDIANA INSPECTOR GENERAL" and a navigation bar with links like "Hotline", "Ethics Code", "Reports", and "Home".

The collage also includes various other elements, such as logos, images, and text, all contributing to a fragmented and inconsistent online presence.

- “[M]any state websites still have inconsistent layouts and color schemes and pages that look very different as users browse from agency site to agency site or even within an agency site.

This can be intimidating and overwhelming as users sometimes are not sure if they still are on an official state website when they all look different, and the user has to orient himself for every new website.”

– Brown University 2006 Report

- Shift to Customer-focused IN.gov:

- Relevant, consistent content, at right time, across & throughout IN.gov
- “One stop” solutions
- Promote self-service; identify as (same) one customer

- Benefits to Citizens & Businesses

- Know what to expect
- Know where to find and operate features on every page
- Get solutions to problems, not solutions within silos of the bureaucracy

- Benefits to Government

- Consistent branding
- Simplified, standardized training and support
- Design in best interest of the State and constituents
- Redundancies eliminated
